“ My dear Aunt Annie was so fun loving. She is now in heaven with my Mom, Juanita. They were very close during those early child rearing days. I will always remember her very funny laugh and the sparkle in her eyes anytime she saw family.

“ Granny was the world to me. As children, she would tell us bedtime stories, and on weekends she would sing us awake with her beautiful voice. When I was a teenager, she taught me to drive and took me to the DMV to get my driver's license. She taught Sunday school and we sang in the Easter Cantata together every year. Yes, Granny made all the difference in my life. I miss her very much and I will always fall short of her example. Until we are together again Granny. I love you. Your granddaughter Jeanne Ann

“ The smell of eucalyptus trees brings back fond memories of living on the lemon ranch with Granny and Poppop when I was growing up. Poppop would drive us down the eucalyptus tree lined road to the bus stop on rainy days and at bedtime, Granny would tell us stories of friendly munchkins who lived in those eucalyptus trees. Although the ranch house is no longer there, the memories of being loved and valued remain. I love you and miss you Granny. You made me who I am today. Love you always- Jeanne Ann

“ Melody, Terry, and Kelly,
My heart goes out to you all and to your families. Aunt Anna Belle was such a sweet, kind, loving person to my family through the years, but especially to my Mom those last months after she had a stroke. May God bless you and comfort you and your families.
We love you.

“ Granny taught me to be kind. She taught me to be patient. She taught me to be responsible and work hard for the things that were important to me. She showed me in her actions everyday how to love and serve the Lord. Everything I am and everything I've been able to accomplish in my life has been because of the love, support, and kindness I received from her. I was so fortunate to have her as my Granny for 49 years and I can't imagine how I am going to live the rest of my life without her. I know I will see her again someday but until then it's going to be tough. I miss her. Thank you Granny for everything.

“ My mother was love. She was kind, compassionate, loyal, and always there for her family. I never heard my Mom say an unkind word about anyone. She loved our Lord Jesus Christ, and our family. I will miss her beyond words to express. I love you Mom and can't wait to be with you again and then forever.

“ Anna Belle was the greatest grandmother a grandson could ever ask for. She was the most loving, caring, generous, compassionate person I have ever known. She gave so much during her lifetime, and asked for nothing in return. I have so many fond memories of her that I will always cherish. I miss you so much already granny. I love you always. Your loving grandson.
