“ I worked with Candace at American National. She was a stickler for quality and I was one of "those" developers. Her passion for what she did planted a seed of interest in me for the world of quality and because of that, I ended up as a QA Manager and then Director. She was a very special person and we will all certainly miss her.

“ I also knew Candice from Micro-Magic/AMS. She was a powerhouse in everything she did and would do anything for her friends. She took a day off from work to drive me to a doctor's appointment in Kansas City in '94. That was when she told me that instead of saying "turn left" or "turn right," I needed to point in the direction we needed to turn. We both got a big laugh when I reminded her that I couldn't really point very well, to which she replied: "Just look in the direction needed and I'll follow your nose."

Though we lost track of one another over the past few years, I will always love Candice and count myself extremely lucky to have had her as a friend. God bless you Candice Becker.

“ I worked with Candace at Micro-Magic/AMS and thought so much of her. She was always so helpful and very smart! After AMS closed I would see her out and about and she was always so friendly. She loved her Son so much! He was her pride and joy! Rest In Peace my sweet friend!

“ I worked with Candace at Micro Magic/AMS and the things I learned from her are endless. She was a warm, loving person and a generous soul. We enjoyed many wonderful dinners together with our "Semi-Single" group where several of us got tired of eating alone and would come together ever month or 2 to share a meal & game night. She once made homemade fortune cookies and I wrote the fortunes. Our teamwork lead to laughter and fun. She only had one child, but she was the loving, guiding parental force for many of us who were young and green. She opened her home and her heart to us and I was truly blessed to share so many wonderful memories with her. I used to tell people at work, "You can dispute Candice, but you better have your Ducks in a Row. She really knows her stuff." I don't remember anyone proving her wrong, but I remember many tried. LOL! She is now reunited with the love of her life. He was a large part of her life and I was lucky to hear many wonderful stories about him. Candace, enjoy your happily ever after. You've earned it.
