“ Angie was such a pleasure to do business with. Her fun and gregarious personality came out in each phone call or email. I'm sure she will be missed by the Diesel Exchange family and my heart goes out to her family and friends. Such a tragedy to lose someone so young and full of life.

“ Hi All, I'm Jim Corbett of Newton, GA. I work for Raytheon Company. Though I never met Angie in person I feel like she was a good friend. I always looked forward to talking with her even though it was always business. She was always on top of everything. Once she answered the mail or the phone call ended you knew you had the right answer. I always felt absolute confidence when my communication with her was over. All of us here at Raytheon in Albany, Ga miss her already. My prayers go out to Angie's family and to all of her extended family at Diesel Exchange.
