

Barbara Lee McMahan

September 9, 1946 - October 2, 2014

Barbara McMahan, 68, of Stockton, Missouri passed away Thursday at Lake Stockton Healthcare. She was born in Middleport, Ohio to Lee Albert and Yvonne Hoffner. After graduating from the Middleport High School Barbara attended nursing school at the Rio Grand Nursing School in Gallipolis, Ohio where she became an LPN. She served as a nurse in the US Army during the Vietnam War. She worked for 30 years in the nursing profession before moving to the Stockton area to be near her family after retirement. Barbara was famous to those near to her as a baker of exceptional skill as she loved baking cookies and making candy. She was an avid watcher of the Food Network. She also enjoyed watching old movies, crocheting, and doing crafts. She had a fun personality and kept those around her chuckling at her quips and stories. She was well respected and loved by many. She was preceded in death by her parents. Barbara is survived by her son Jeff McMahan and his wife Bobbi of Stockton, Missouri; daughter Tracey Baker of Springfield, Missouri; 6 grandchildren; 5 great-grandchildren; brothers Tom and Harvey Hoffner and Roy and Mike Bareswilt; numerous nieces, nephews, and friends. In keeping with Barbara's wishes, cremation has taken place under the direction of Murray Funeral Home in Bolivar. No services are planned. Online condolences may be submitted at www.murrayfuneralhomes.com.

“ Barb was a special classmate of the Middleport High School Class of 1965. It was good when she was able to join us for some of our get togethers. I hadn't seen Barb for several years and I didn't 'know the status of he health. I hope that she was carefdfor if she were sick because as a nurse, she cared for so many thru the years. We will miss you Barb!
