

Betty J. Williams

April 10, 1934 - January 14, 2008

Betty Joyce Williams, 73, Bolivar, died Monday, Jan. 14, 2008, at her daughter's home north of Bolivar, where she was under hospice care in recent weeks. She was born April 10, 1934, in Section, Ala. to T.O. Williams and Nola J. (Ball) Williams. She spent most of her life in Alabama where she was a waitress before moving to Bolivar six years ago to be near her daughter, Cecilia (CC) Gulick, and son-in-law, Jim. Other survivors include a son, Tom Wybarra and wife Phylis of Reno, Nev.; two sisters, Marie Barber of Scottsboro, Ala., and Nelda Jean Martin of Biloxi, Miss.; eight grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Pastor Rod Campbell will lead a memorial service at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 19, at the Gulick home and The Berry Patch, 1014 E. 394th Rd., west off of Mo. 83, Bolivar, under direction of Murray Funeral Home. The remains have been donated for research at the University of Missouri in Columbia. Memorial contributions may be made to Habitat for Humanity in Polk County, in care of the funeral home.
