“ *It was a gift that Donna and I were able to spend a little time with Mr. Reser this last visit to Missouri. It made me recall many fond memories as a young boy of both Carl and Willetta. We will always remember Carl as an affectionate, kind hearted , respected individual . Our condolences to the family, we know he will be a great loss to many.
With all our affection,

“ Willetta, I want to send you my love and prayers during this time. I have thought of you and Carl often and how sweet and kind you both have always been. It is a wonderful time of graduation for him, but also a time of loss for us, how well I know. We still miss Mom even though she has been away from us since 1992. Just know that soon we will all be together - celebrating each other and Worshipping the One we love. Debbie Whillock Carter and Family
