“ My husband (Steve) and I wish we could have been at the service. It's very sad losing a cousin. Our prayers are going up for all of you (immediate family and friends).

Sincerely,

Renee' (Brown) Shaffer

“ Just wanted you to know that you have been in our prayers. It is so hard to say goodbye. She was so young. I remember one time when she and I babysat some children together and talked for hours. We didn't get to spend a lot of time together but i will always remember how easy it was to talk to her. Love and prayers Pam Moser Stewart

“ Uncle Dallas & Aunt Shelly,

It's been so long since I have seen or talked with you, and it breaks my heart that it is now under these conditions. I am just so deeply sorry! There is NOTHING like experiencing the death of a loved one, and certainly when it is your child, but I know one thing I learned after losing Rebecca is it is much easier when you lean on God. I tried it my way first -- on my own, and it didn't work out so well, but with Him and with time may the peace that truly does pass all understanding wrap around you in a powerful way! I wish I could give you a hug in person!

Love, Jessica & Family

“ Carla & I were friends for 38 years. She had a very caring, loving, spirit with a great sense of humor. We spent many hours talking on the phone when she moved to Missouri. She was always there for me no matter what time of the day. I got to talk to her 3 days before the Lord decided he needed an angel in heaven. She will be enduringly missed.

“ Now that I am gone,
remember me with smiles and laughter.
And if you need to cry,
cry with your brother or sister who walks in grief beside you.
And when you need me,
put your arms around anyone
and give to them what you need to give to me.
There are so many who need so much.
I want to leave you something -- something much better than words or sounds.
Look for me in the people I've known or helped in some special way.
Let me live in your heart
as well as in your mind.
You can love me most
by letting your love reach out to our loved ones,
by embracing them and living in their love.
Love does not die, people do.
So, when all that's left of me is love,
give me away as best you can.

“ To the Family of Carla,

My thoughts and sincere condolences in the loss of your sweet Carla. I have such fond memories of her from when we were children. Carla was always such a subtly sweet and thoughtful person. I hope all of you find comfort in knowing she was loved and surely brought such loving comfort to others. Sincerely, Aunt Al, cousins Sheila, Sandy and Bill and families.

“ *Shes in a better place right now
Than shes ever been before;
All pain is gone; shes now at rest;Nothing troubles her anymore.
Its we who feel the burden of
Our sadness and our grief;
We have to cry, to mourn our loss,
Before we get relief.
We know well reconnect with her
At the end of each lifes road;
Well see her cherished face again
When we release our earthly load.
With deepest condolences
