She is preceded in death by her parents Lee and Judy, 3 brothers, Randy, Larry and Gerry Jump, and one son Gary Garzee.

Carolyn was raised in Bolivar Mo, where she went to a one room school where she informed all of us kids that she had to walk to school uphill both ways, in a snow storms, where girls were only allowed to wear dresses. She also said she went to a little Methodist church and was saved there as a young girl. She is survived by five children, Kerry and Andrea Garzee of Columbia Mo, Terry and his wife Denise Garzee of Bolivar, Larry and his wife Vinita Garzee of Bolivar, Shelley Davis of Bolivar and Sheila and her husband Alan Bays of Halfway. 11 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandchild, a sister, Joyce Stone and husband Dean Allen of Pleasant Hill, Mo and by one brother, Richard Jenkins and his wife Carolyn, Uncles, Aunts and many, many cherished nieces and nephews as well as many friends. Carolyn loved many things in this world, like sandy beaches and the ocean, viewing mountains and sun rises, but what mattered above all else was family. She cherished every single moment spent when family was near. She took in every single stray that needed loved regardless if they walked on two legs or four. When she gave, she gave with a whole heart. She will be missed every single day, will never be far from our thoughts, and will always be in our hearts. The family expresses their gratitude to family and friends for their love and concern shown to Carolyn and her family during this difficult time. They also would like to extend a special thank you and lots of love to Uncle Eddie for his love and support. Carolyn loved him very much and held him very close to her heart.

“ Carolyn has been a special person in my life for a very long time. She had a way of making you laugh at life when things were on the down side. She treated me like a family member and always had a smile on. She will be missed very much. May Gods angels hold her in their arms and the love of God envelope her. You are loved and will be missed. With love and Respect, Gary Carter
