“ Gale and Pat were our best friends in Bolivar from 1968 to 1972. Gale was one of the kindest and most godly persons I have ever known. And Pat was the same kind of friend. I did not know of her passing until I saw it in Gale's obituary online. I am so very sorry for the family's loss. Michael, you were just a toddler when we moved back to San Antonio, but I don't think any baby has ever been loved more than you were. They were so proud of you. Prayers for you all.

“ Some of my fondest memories of my Grandpa was him showing me how to get the perfect golf swing when I was probably around 7 or 8. He taught me a lot of grammar too; education was very important to him and he always made an effort to teach us kids as much as he could. He was always mild mannered and kind, and he raised his sons to be incredible men. Thank you grandpa for raising my dad to be great and for keeping a smile in our faces. You had 79 great years and it's hard to believe you're gone. Love and miss you.
