

Charles James Lewis

November 19, 1938 - March 15, 2026

Charles James Lewis, of Bolivar, was born in Fulton, NY, on November 19, 1938, to Harold and Lucille Lewis.

He graduated from Phoenix High School in Phoenix, NY. He met his wife Gloria in school in 1954. They reunited at their class reunion and were married in 1994. He worked in the computer field for many years until he retired.

Chuck's hobbies included fishing and traveling. He loved the years he spent living in the mountains of Wyoming. He was an avid sports fan, he enjoyed watching the Yankees, basketball, and NASCAR.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents and his son David Lewis. He is survived by his wife, Gloria Lewis of Bolivar, MO and his son Randy Lewis. Scott Wilkins (Dona Avon), Dianne Grider (Matt), Laura Steele (Bob), and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

TS

“ Godspeed Uncle Chuck.....we will see you again! We love you!!

The Spencers - March 17 at 05:54 PM