“ I could write a book about Charlie, and maybe someday I will. 47 years of friendship means we shared everything that happens in life, celebrating the good times and helping each other get through the harder ones. So many memories, such an icon of caring and friendship to all he met. There is a reason I can think of so many friends who are saying: "Charlie and Kay are my best friends." And everyone would be correct, because they are truly the best of friends to countless people of Bolivar. We all were privileged to share the title of "best friends" to Charlie and Kay. I can't help but think heaven's gates were open wide yesterday as Charlie entered, and there was a baby grand piano all shined up and ready for Charlie to lead the choirs of angels in their Christmas songs this year. Never stop bringing joy to all in heaven through your music, Charlie. I will miss you, my friend.

“ My relationship with Charlie Long goes back 55 years. He was my musical "partner" in our love and appreciation of all kinds of music, and we shared many musical moments, with him at the piano. His talent was immense, and I loved when he would accompany me on one of the "oldies" especially "Unforgettable"...which he was and will always be. Love you, dear friend and "brother." 🎵🎵❤️
