“ This has been a terrible shock to lose Chuck. It was always a comfort to have a cousin in my class and his gentle nature and quick smile were constants. Chuck loved to remind me that he was the "older" cousin by a few weeks. We had occasion to catch up with a long visit a couple of months ago and it ended with a promise to get the family together for a mini-reunion. He seemed quite content and happy and he's always loved his parents and spoke with such pride when the conversation turned to Chad. We will miss sweet Chuck. May God help each of you through this painful, tragic time.

“ I'm so shocked of the news about Chuck. He was just in our office on Wednesday chatting about Christmas and all. I will miss his sweet and humorous disposition...he could always make you smile. I'll not look at the coke machines in the breakroom without thinking of Chuck and him always filling them up for us...keeping them topped off so we wouldn't "bug" him about it. Paula,I can't imagine what you must be feeling right now but please know you're in my continued thoughts and prayers. With my deepest sympathy~ Cindy
