

Charlotte M. May

April 28, 1921 - November 29, 2010

Charlotte Marie May, 89, of Aldrich, Missouri, went to her heavenly home on November 29, 2010 after a short illness. Charlotte was born on April 28, 1921 in Independence, Missouri to Harry and Orvetta Lomax. On May 12, 1942, Charlotte was united in Marriage to James Rodney May of Canfield, Ohio. After leaving the military in 1944, Charlotte and Jim made their home in Phoenix, Arizona where they raised their five children. Charlotte was a wonderful wife, homemaker, mom, grandma, great-grandma, sister, aunt, friend and most importantly child of God. She was truly an inspiration to all who knew her. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Jim, Sister, DeeDee, brothers, Russell and Paul, daughter-in-law Pat, and her loving son, Rodney Paul. Charlotte is survived by her four children, James C. (Butch) May and wife, Tammie of Aldrich, Vetta Blauvelt and husband, Bob of Aldrich, Robert (Bobby) May and wife, Vicki of Phoenix, Arizona and Dawn Reynolds and husband, Keny of Polk, Missouri, 9 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews. We will all grieve our loss, but we will rejoice in knowing that Mom is Home and there will no longer be pain and suffering for her and knowing we will once again rejoice with our Mom in our heavenly home. Services will be at the Aldrich United Methodist Church, Highway 123, 3 miles south of Aldrich, at 10:30 AM Saturday, December 4, 2010. Burial will be at the Shady Grove Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home at their convenience after 9:00 AM Thursday. Donations in lieu of flowers may be made to the Aldrich United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 46,

Aldrich, Missouri, 65601.
