“ If anyone has a photo from school or anything else of our mother. Would you mind sending me a copy? We lost most of our photos. Mom was storing them in the trunk of her car and someone stole the car. When the car was found, all of the pictures were gone. It was a terrible loss, none of them can ever be replaced.

“ I remember riding the bus home from school and spending the night at Charlotte's home when we were in grade school. She always loved to play outside; we played in the pond, petted their goats, and just ran and played in the fields. So sorry for your loss.

This picture brings back many memories of your grandparents and mother. Your grandparents owned the farm next to us. Your grandparents bought a bicycle for your mom so that she could ride bikes with my brother and I. This picture reminds me of how much Jess and Lucy loved their little family. Later, I had the privilege of teaching Jess and Lucy's granddaughters and great grandson.

This a very special Tribute to your mother. May your good memories give you comfort.

*Thanks Becky for sharing with us your memories.
I'm sure you could tell many stories of mom!
It's hard to believe that you were mine, and my sons 4th grade teacher.
I think you said that my 4th grade year was your first year of teaching.
And then you retired (well at least as the 4th grade teacher!) the same year my son graduated.
You were a totally awesome teacher, and you were one of my favorites!
I still remember fishing on the bridge before you got to your house.
Then going swimming and fishing down on the river on your farm. And I was always excited to see you when we came past your house. There are so many, many memories that I have from there. It really means a lot! It seems like we spent almost the same amount of time up home (mom always called it that) as we did at our house!
I want to thank you for allowing us to do that! I will treasure those memories forever. And I want to thank you for sharing your memories with us.
Kyle said you and Kenny were out west and enjoying retirement.
I was glad to hear that. You both definitely deserve it!
