

Clifford W. Strode

October 6, 1913 - February 10, 2011

Clifford William Strode, 97, Flemington, died Thursday, February 10, 2011 at Christian Healthcare of Hermitage. The son of William M. and Flora Ann (Gosney) Strode, he was born October 6, 1913 in Smithville, Missouri. He and Dorothy E. Leonard were married in Liberty, Missouri September 14, 1940. She preceded him in death November 29, 2009. His parents, daughter, Susan Weber, and brother, Paul H. Strode, also preceded him in death. Cliff and Dot moved to Flemington from Osceola in 1982. During the Depression, he worked in the Civilian Conservation Corps. He was a farmer, but also worked in construction and was a motor grader operator for the Clay County Highway Department prior to his retirement. He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Paul and Ella Strode, Wheatland; and three grandchildren, James W. Strode and wife, Eden, Erica Strode and Fred Weber. Graveside services will be at 2:00 PM Sunday, February 13, 2011 at Durnell Chapel Cemetery, north of Flemington, with Rev. Scott Chance officiating. Services are under the direction of Murray Funeral Home, Humansville.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Clifford W. Strobe

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ Clifford W. Strobe

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM