“ *In everybody's garden
A little rain must fall.
Or life's sweetest forest flowers,
Wouldn't grow and bloom at all.
And though the clouds hang heavy,
So heavy, oh, my friends,
I'm sure that God who sends the shower,
Will send the rainbow's end.*

Thanks Dad for the wonderful day on January 7th, thanks for sharing God with us! We will never forget!

*We love you and miss you Dad!

“ Hazel, I am so sorry for your loss. I know how happy you were with Clyde, and how much the two of you loved each other. My thoughts and prayers are with you now, and just know that you are loved by so many, and cherished by your family. If you should need anything, including a shoulder to cry on or someone to yell at, let me know. I have been where you are, and I understand the pain you are going through.

With Love,
Tammy

“ The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again*

“ I am home in heaven, dear ones. Oh, so happy and so bright! There is a perfect joy and beauty In the everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over; Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in heaven at last. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand, Do it now, while life remaineth You shall rest in God's own land. When that work is all completed. He will gently call you Home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting Oh, the joy to see you come!!! I LOVE YOU GRANDPA!!!! LOVE, TROY, JENNY, ALEXIS, LEAH, LITTLE TROY BRENEMAN
