

Clyde "Pop" L. Craig

March 27, 1922 - May 4, 2007

Clyde L. Pop Craig, 85, Bolivar, died Friday, May 4, 2007 in Northwood Hills Care Center, Humansville. The son of Wallace and Eva Craig, he was born March 27, 1922 at Hamilton, Missouri. Clyde served 20 years as a medical corpsman in the U. S. Navy retiring in 1960. He and Hazel L. Bradbury were married July 30, 1945, who preceded him in death June 23, 2002. They moved to Bolivar in 1965 and Clyde opened a typewriter repair and office machine business. He also was the campus mail carrier at Southwest Baptist University. Gardening was his hobby and passion. He was a member of Bolivar First Baptist Church. Clyde was a wonderful Christian man whose life greatly influenced many. He was well loved by many not only in this community and country, but in various places around the world. Surviving is his daughter, Bonita, Bolivar. No services are planned. Cremation was under the direction of Murray Funeral Home.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Clyde "Pop" L. Craig

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ Clyde "Pop" L. Craig

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM

“ Pop was a dear man. Memories of Mom and Pop will make me smile for many years to come. Wednesday nights at their home with a delicious meal and great card games will remain with me forever. I will greatly miss my Pop.

David Donahue - May 12, 2007 at 12:00 AM