

Connie B. Baldwin

April 22, 1937 - July 19, 2016

Connie Baldwin, 79, of rural Flemington, died July 19, at Mercy Hospital, in Springfield, Missouri, following an automobile accident. She was the daughter of Russell and LaMoine Gourley Baldwin.

She served in the US Army for 3 years, then worked in the insurance industry, in Kansas City, retiring from Prudential. After retirement she worked as a teacher's aide for special needs children until she moved back to Polk Co. to help care for her mother. She professed faith in Jesus Christ at Rondo Baptist Church as a teenager, and remained an active member there, serving as hostess at the time of her death. She was a devoted aunt and great aunt to her nieces and nephews, and helped them in any way she could.

She enjoyed traveling, and going to theaters with friends, at Stained Glass and Springfield Little Theater, as well as bowling in a winter league.

She is survived by a sister, Kay Pitts and her husband Bob, a brother Greg Baldwin, nephew Brian Pitts and wife Stephanie, nieces Kim McNeel and husband Joe, Melissa Baldwin and Sherry Michel and husband Jason. As well as great nieces and nephews, Leland, Emily and Becca Jones, Jordan & Brianna Pitts, Mariah Fuller and Trevon Brazile, Bryson & Kaden Montgomery.

Services will be held Saturday, July 23, at 11:00 AM at Rondo Baptist Church, under the direction of Butler Funeral Home in Bolivar, with visitation from 10:00 to 11:00, before the service. Burial will be at the Rondo Cemetery, following the funeral.

“ I am so blessed to have known Connie. She loved and cared about others with a heart that was as big as the world. I considered her my friend and sister in Christ. We had fun times just talking at Church and I was so honored to be able to help her with the dinners st Church and she taught me many things
