

Curtis Waggoner

September 11, 1927 - May 19, 2008

Curtis Dale Waggoner, 80, Bolivar, died Monday, May 19, 2008 in Northwood Hills Care Center, Humansville. The son of Coy and Violet (Hagerman) Waggoner, he was born at Wishart, Missouri September 11, 1927. Curtis served in the military from 1945 to 1949. He then worked for MFA before moving to San Diego, California, where he worked as a janitor and service station attendant. Curtis then retired to Missouri to live with his daughter. He was preceded in death by his parents and one great-grandson, Airien Christopher. Survivors include one daughter, Marcella Marcy Blackshire, Bolivar; two granddaughters and their husbands, Crystal and Lucius Colbert, Bolivar and Tanya and Eric Schmidt, Chanute, Kansas; seven great-grandchildren, Ashley, Naviahan, Austin, Timothy, Mercedes, Harley Paige and Corban; long-friends, Thelma and Larry Hostetter; and a host of cousins. Curtis was a very loving and caring father, grandfather and great-grandfather. Graveside services with military rites will be at 3:00 PM Saturday, May 24, 2008 in Pleasant Ridge Cemetery, south of Aldrich, with Rev. Joe Coppedge officiating. Visitation will be from 6:00 to 8:00 PM Friday at Murray Funeral Home, Bolivar. Memorial donations may be made to Community Hospice of America, 1465 E. Primrose, Suite A, Springfield, MO 65804.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Curtis Waggoner

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ Curtis Waggoner

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM