“ So very sorry to read of the tragic accident and loss of your Dakota. I know there are no words to ease the pain you must be feeling now. There is something I would like to share with you from the Bible. Please read Luke 7:11-22. Our Creator wants us to live and Jesus has great compassion for those who have lost someone to death, He would never take someone we love but will certainly give your loved one back to you. John 5:28,29 speaks of a resurrection of all those in Gods memory and Psalm 37:29 says that righteous people will live on earth forever. These passages are very encouraging. There is much Bible-based comfort to be found on the website jw.org
