“ Please accept our sorrow at the loss of friend and neighbor, Daryl. I felt particularly close to both of you because of similarity of names and illnesses. We will miss him and hope to spend more time with you in in the future.

“ I knew Daryl for only a short time; we played pool together at the Over 50 Club. I enjoyed his company, his wit and his good sportsmanship. We knew his health had been failing but his spirit is now free again. I will miss him. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of sorrow and remembrance.

“ On most of our family vacations my family and I would visit aunt Phyllis and uncle Daryl. Daryl enjoyed taking us golfing and fishing. We also played with Andy while aunt Phyllis made a really, really good meal.

I will really miss uncle Daryl, he was a good family friend and relative.

“ I will always miss Uncle Daryl, him playing with Andy, having him tell us all the perfect ways to golf! I will never forget the jokes he would tell!

Definitely how he loved chocolate milk! On our vacations, when we would go to Shatto Milk Company. We'd give a lot of chocolate milk!
I love you Uncle Daryl!!!!
