“ Ardie and Family, My heart aches with you at this time. I am thinking and praying that you recieve some comfort knowing those that love you and Don have you in their thoughts. I pray that you may find comfort in the many happy memories that are yours to cherish always and you receive strength from the companionship of those who share your loss. I know that with each memory those that we love and lost are always in our heart and the heart never forgets. With love and prayers - My thoughts are of you and the family. Connie
