

Donna Lea Cooper

December 14, 1933 - April 11, 2021

Donna Lea (Fisher) Cooper, 87, passed away on April 11, 2021 at 2:53 a.m. at Parkview Healthcare facility in Bolivar. She was the widow of Coy Cooper Jr. They shared 70 years of marriage together before his passing. To this union were born four children, Rick, Kathy, Jeff, and Lesa.

Donna was born on a farm near Fair Play on December 14th, 1933 to Athel and Velma Fisher. She attended Bear Creek High School. She worked as a homemaker and farm wife. Donna enjoyed gardening, canning, and working on the farm helping Coy raise hogs and cattle. She was a wonderful cook who made amazing chicken and dumplings, fried chicken, peach cobbler, and apple pie. Her family would literally drive for miles just to have her fix them her biscuits and gravy. Donna was saved at Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church. She was a member at Mt. Olive Baptist Church for 50 years, serving in various capacities and carried many a covered dish to church functions.

She greatly enjoyed taking vacations with her family, Colorado being one of her favorite places to visit. Few things brought her greater joy in life than her grandkids, Julie, Kristi, Jacob, Curtis, Phillip, Jonathon, Jason, Jordan, Jessica, Jarod, Scott, Bethany, and Bradley. Great grandkids, Logan, Lucas, Trenton, Trinity, Kirstyn, Gavin, Brock, Jackson, Clay, Owen, Alison, Kylyn, Sasha, Killian, Ronin, Blakely, Coy, Juliette, Jo Jo, Kaylee, Ada, Jordy, Jensen, and two more on the way. Donna took great pride in having rocked almost all of them as babies while singing "Love Lifted Me" or "Rock-A-Bye Baby".

Donna is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Coy, and son Rick. She is survived by Rick's wife Della, daughter, Kathy (Mike) Afton, son, Jeff (Geni) Cooper, and daughter, Lesa (Eddie) Crain, 13 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, her brother Wendell Fisher, and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Mt. Olive Baptist Church.
