We are very sorry about your Mom passing. I don't think Carla and I ever met her down there, but that doesn't matter. She was your Mom, and we hope that you are doing ok and find peace this year.

“ Dear Paula & Family,
I grew up with Doris as a Sunday school teacher at the Bolivar UMC. I've known the Spainhower family most of my life. My cousin Neva Charlene Gardner was also a good friend of Doris' & in Texas for the winter.

It's always difficult to lose a parent, grandparents & great grandparents. Yet having gone through the loss of Jerry's Mom, Mary 2 1/2 years ago, we would never want them to continue to suffer. Doris is with all who have gone before & walking the Streets of Gold in Heaven.

I'm Praying for comfort for all of you 🙏💜. Until we meet again Doris
