“*Mama, I hope you are sitting in heaven beside Sharon & Janie, laughing & hugging each other in sisterly joy. Hug them for me, too...hug Grandpa, Grandma, & yes, even my dad. I know that they all know I love them & miss them dearly. I know that you are at peace, pain free, & happy there...but I wish you were still here. I didn't live close, but we did talk at least once a day, sometimes even 2 or 3 times a day. A funny joke I heard that I wanted to share, something one of your grandkids said or did that I thought you would get a kick out of, but mainly just to hear your voice, & say I love you. Like the time I had you laughing so hard you nearly peed your pants..Emily Bean got SO mad at us (we WERE being perverted...a bit...ok, maybe more than a bit!) but I had never in my life heard you laugh so hard! It made my heart happy to hear you laugh like that, because we all know you didn't have a lot of occasions to laugh in the distant past. You deserved those laughs. I listened to you cry at times, we shared so much in all those phone conversations. You gave so much love & joy to us all every day, between the grandkids you have from your 3 children, & all the little ones you have loved & cared for thru the years that you consider grandkids, too, you brought so much joy to so many lives. I sat with Bubby (Thomas) Sunday evening until Tuesday afternoon, trying my best to console him while he cried - & he cried a LOT. You were such rocks for each other, you & Bubby, & he misses you so much. What a strong, loving mom you were...when your son needed you, you were right there to take him in, no matter what was wrong with him, no matter what anyone else said or thought about it, you gave him the love he deserved & a home. I just want you to know how proud I am to be your daughter, & how much Bubby & I and my babies are gonna miss you. (P.S. I still have your last voice mail on my phone - you being silly & that I love you that I can replay any time I need to hear your voice.) I love you mama :-(-*

“ I only got to spend a few times with Dorothy, but they were not nearly enough. I met her through her daughter Shelia, and she treated me like one of her own. I know how heartbreaking this is for Shelia and her children, she loved them very much. I know she loved all of her family with her whole heart. You will be greatly missed "mom". I lived you very much.
