

Dorothy Louise Ward

April 9, 1931 - August 1, 2014

Dorothy Louise Ward, 83, of Humansville passed away Friday, August 1, 2014 at the Big Spring Care Center in Humansville. She was one of 4 children born in Independence, Missouri to Donald Edward and Ruby Pearl DeTray. Dorothy was an accountant for many years for AZ Manufacturing, a family owned company in Independence. She moved to Humansville from Eagle Rock, Missouri in 2008 to be near her daughter and son-in-law. Dorothy was an elder in her church and was very active in church activities. She enjoyed quilting but she was especially adept at hand-painting the wooden ducks, geese, and birds that her husband carved. They enjoyed taking their creations to craft fairs and participating in all the activities associated with their creativity. She was preceded in death by her parents and husband Vaughn Newton Ward, Sr. Dorothy is survived by daughter Cynthia Johnson and her husband Frank of Humansville; sons Vaughn Newton Ward, Jr. of Eagle Rock, Missouri and Donald Edward Ward and his wife Sylvia of Germany; brother George Edward DeTray and his wife Kay of Florida; sisters Betty Bush and her husband Ken of Blue Springs, Missouri and Sue Barclay and her husband Rich of Independence, Missouri; 11 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Per Dorothy's wishes cremation has taken place and no memorial services are planned. Online condolences may be submitted at www.murrayfuneralhomes.com.
