

Dortha Elizabeth Parker

March 10, 1925 - September 14, 2014

Dortha Elizabeth (Blackwell) Parker, 89, of Flemington, Missouri passed away peacefully at Citizens Memorial Healthcare Facility in Bolivar on September 14, 2014. She was born March 10, 1925 near Elkton in Tyler Township, Hickory County, Missouri to Henry R. and Emma Elizabeth Floyd Blackwell of Flemington. She was a graduate of the Flemington High School Class of 1942. She worked at various jobs through her life including Sears in Kansas City but she most loved living on her farm in Polk County. She was very dedicated to the Flemington Christian Church that she and her husband Marshall re-opened in 1991. She loved going to the Flemington High School reunions with Marshall and visiting with friends and neighbors. In her last years she enjoyed attending various churches in the area with her devoted friend and caregiver Boneva Grigsby. Dortha was preceded in death by her parents; husband Reverend Marshall C. Parker in 2011; her previous spouse Jimmie Dee Sawyers in 1977; her brother Estell Blackwell; sisters Dona Clark, Roda Pitts, Edna Brackney; and one grandchild. She is survived by step-children Marsha Maples of Independence, Ralph Parker of Kansas City and Dan Parker of Raymore; seven grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; many nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Funeral services for Dortha Parker will be held 11:00 AM Thursday, September 18, 2014 at the Murray Funeral Home in Humansville with Rev Jack Sawyer and Rev. Al Bandy officiating. Interment will follow at the Flemington Cemetery. A visitation will be held from 10 - 11 AM on Thursday prior to the service. Online condolences
