Dottie loved the outdoors. She enjoyed being around the water whether it was getting wet swimming or sitting in a boat with a fishing rod. Around the house she had a passion for feeding and watching birds, taking care of her flowers and gardening. Holidays were the place where her creativity shined. Whether it was the festive decorations inside and out or the way she would make sure everyone got their favorite dish at the holiday meal. Later in life she enjoyed traveling with Leo to vintage car shows. There was a little bit of a Hot Rod girl in Dottie. Her greatest love though, was her family. She was an example of prioritizing others ahead of herself. Her prayer for her family was that their walk with Jesus would be the foundation to carry them through life.
