SAFE PASSAGE

*God reminds us, life is but a wisp
Like a vapor, here and gone
All that's left are memories
We leave, that lingers on*

*Tho we may be Heaven bound
I think most would agree
Memories of love and pleasant thoughts
Are what we desire to leave*

*God says rejoice at the passing
Of a loved one heaven bound
To spend eternity with Jesus
Who God's love will surround*

*At the passing of a loved one
We too die a little inside
But death is a bridge, all must cross
To get to the other side*

“ Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Earl's family. Earl was a great friend and always helpful and cheerful when we were together at cowboy action shoots and camping at the range. Cowboy action shooting is a very spiritual sport full of fellowship with our "Pards". We tend to think that God needed another great cowboy action shooter for his heavenly posse. Earl will definitely raise the average score in heaven in a most spiritual way so I can understand why God needs him. We will really miss Earl at the campfire for years to come. May God's blessings be upon Earl and his entire family in this time of hardship.

“ Catherine, Belknap, and the Stoutzenberger Family,

We were so sorry to hear of Earl's passing. He was a great guy and will be missed. We heard that he and Belknap spent last weekend together at the Missouri State Shoot in Branson. It's wonderful they had that precious time together. We always looked forward to seeing Earl every September at the NTR shoot in Iowa. Our thoughts and prayers are with your entire family at this difficult time.
