

Edith Christine Hayes Hobbs

April 26, 1950 - February 1, 2014

Edith Christine Hayes Hobbs, 63, of Bolivar, Missouri passed away Saturday, February 1st at her residence. She was one of 7 children born to Levi Clifton and Lela Frances Wallace in Bolton, Mississippi. Edie moved to Bolivar in 2012 from Springfield with the majority of her lifetime spent living in Independence, Missouri. She was a member of the Crown Pointe Church in Lees Summit. She was very active in childhood education and reading during her working career working with library development programs for the Courtney Elementary School in Independence. She was a GED instructor and was very active in the D.A.R.E. program for the City of Independence and was also a sister city host for Independence. Her family was her first priority closely followed by giving to and helping others less fortunate than she. She enjoyed quilting and making baby blankets which were given to others. Edie was preceded in death by her parents; brothers John and Lonnie Wallace both of Macon, Missouri. She is survived by her husband Richard Hobbs of the home; daughter Emily J. Collins of Independence, Missouri; brother Walter Wallace and his wife Ella of Beeville, Texas and brother David Wallace of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; sisters Carol Whalen of Shawnee Mission, Kansas and Arlene Davis and her husband Donnie of Weona, Arkansas; brother-in-law Christopher Whalen of Kansas City, Kansas; granddogs Zena and Bailey; several nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Memorial services for Edie Hobbs will take place 2:00 PM Saturday, February 8, 2014 at Crown Pointe Church; 5950 NE Lakewood Way; Lees Summit, Missouri 816-795-8777 officiated by Pastor Bill Newby. Memorials are suggested to St. Judes Childrens Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee in memory of Edie. Online condolences may be submitted at www.murrayfuneralhomes.com.
