

Eleanor Annette Hannon

February 26, 1931 - October 24, 2012

Eleanor Hannon, 81, of Humansville, passed away Wednesday, October 24, 2012 at Mercy Hospital in Springfield. She was the only child born to Ralph A. and Annette Brockman Cummins in St. Louis, Missouri. Eleanor had an adventurous life. She lived many years in Arizona but moved to Hawaii on 2 separate occasions living on the island of Maui once and on the island of Oahu another time. She moved to the Wheatland area 11 years ago from Show Low, Arizona prior to her move to Humansville. She was a member of Job's Daughters, a womens auxillary of the Masons. She loved her animals, particularly horses and dogs. She enjoyed crafts, needlepoint and crocheting. She had a booth at the Humansville Community Building where she participated in swap-meets. Traveling, camping and fishing were enjoyable hobbies during her life in Arizona and bingo, card games, and jigsaw puzzles were favorite past times at the Humansville Senior Center. Eleanor was preceded in death by her parents and husband Bill Hannon. She is survived by daughter Nancy Hammond and her husband Randy of Flemington; sons Ron Hannon and his wife Christy of Humansville, Frank Olson and his wife Jill of Concord, California; 4 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. In keeping with Eleanor's wishes no funeral services are planned. A private, family memorial gathering will take place in Arizona at a later date. Online condolences may be submitted to www.murrayfuneralhomes.com.
