

Elizabeth Carolyn Hascall

February 25, 1936 - November 23, 2019

Elizabeth Carolyn “Carol” Hascall entered and left this world on her family farm in Humansville, MO surrounded by her family.

Carol was born into a musical family. At the age of four, she started playing with her family, beginning with guitar, later to have her father teach her to play the fiddle. She played the fiddle exceptionally well and made at least a few albums, including the Spotted Pony album, along with appearing on a local radio station and playing in bluegrass festivals. She decided as an adult to make a fiddle, so naturally she began making and even trading fiddles. Carol was a very determined and proud lady.

Carol loved her family dearly. She loved to travel and visit family and would often take them to a garage sale (closer to a dozen garage sales) or a rock & gem show. She also enjoyed fishing with her husband Harvey on Bill and Ann’s farm.

Carol and Harvey were married on October 17, 1964 in Kansas City, Missouri. The two never had children together but treated their nieces and nephews as their very own.

Carol had a way with plants and flowers. She made her plants bloom so beautifully that the Hascall driveway looked like a botanical garden. Carol had a very artistic eye, and she enjoyed making beautiful framed art of her photos, nature, and her arrowhead collection. She collected a great many things, ranging from arrowheads to stamps; from jewelry to rocks and gemstones. All who knew Carol were blessed to have been a part of her photos, hobbies, trips, stories, and her amazing, loving life. Carol is now singing and playing with the angels.

Carol is survived by her husband, Harvey Hascall, as well as her sisters-in-law: Mary Crowe, Daisy Thompson and husband Larry, and Margaret Rains, and her brothers-in-law: Bill Hascall and wife Ann, Ray Hascall and wife Juanita, and Johnnie Hascall and wife Janet. She is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews, and a host of dear friends.

Carol is preceded in death by her parents, Andrew and Cleo Carnagey Beaty, as well as her infant son, John Andrew. She is also preceded by her brother-in-law Don Hascall, and sisters-in-law Pauline Jenkins and Pansy Harjo.

Funeral Services will be held Saturday, November 30, 2019 at 2 PM at the Butler Funeral Home in Humansville, MO. Burial will be held at the Humansville Cemetery. “ I am so sorry to hear of Carol passing. Just got word today, three months after she left this earth. My heart goes out to Harvey and family. I just met Carol for the first time on August 7, 2018. She was kind enough to let me come meet her and visit, even though we had never met. I had contacted weeks before and arranged to get some digitized recordings to her, taken from old 78 records from recordings made in the early 1950s of her with her Mom & Dad, in a band called Ozark Trio. Carol said that my late father in-law, Clifford (Slim) Peterie, had been as close as she ever had to a brother. I believe she said met him when she was 4 years old. She gave me many photos to take back to family here, of her with the many musicians they played with and many photos of Slim playing in various settings. Priceless bits of family history she had so carefully saved.

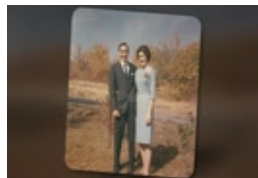

I never had the opportunity to meet Slim as he passed six years before I met his daughter Gayla. The day I was able to spend with Carol and Harvey was a time rich in stories, historical information and sharing. Little did I know that she had followed the whole family over the years and even had saved our wedding invitation years ago to mark the event. She and Harvey showed me the house Slim lived in when young, and the graves of his mother and Aunt. Even though my time during the visit was mostly spent visiting with Carol, it was clear that Harvey was a husband very devoted to her. I hope that I am able to live up to his example in my life. Thoughts and prayers for Harvey and family. I will always be grateful for that short day I was able to spend with them, hearing stories of my family and hers, and the many years they were so very close. May God bless.

“ I will remember Aunt Carol talking about where she found rocks, arrowheads and talking about jewelry. She had many hobbies and I'm proud Kaiden shares a Rick and gem collection with her. I love you Aunt Carol.
