“ Glidwells: My thoughts and deepest sympathies go to you over the miles in the homegoing of Mrs. Glidwell. I will remember her joy for life and people from my days in Bolivar, through FBC_bolivar where we met and getting to know her. I am richer from my knowing your wife, mother, mother-in-law and grandmother.

I want you to know that I love you guys and you are in my thoughts and prayers during these days of your personal loss. I know that your memories will be rich from your years with her. She is in the presence of God today and though hard for you at this point; you will soon me in heaven again for an eternity together.
