

Ethel B Mathiesen

July 18, 1918 - February 18, 2013

Ethel B. Mathiesen, 94, of Humansville passed away Monday, February 18, 2013 at the Northwood Hills Care Center. She was born in Collins, Missouri the daughter of David and Rosa McNeely Baker. Ethel married Delbert Miller in Bolivar, Missouri on May 18, 1938 and to this union daughters Jeanette and Patricia were born. After Delbert was killed on May 3, 1945 in Okinawa during WWII, she then married George Mathiesen on April 22, 1946. To this union was born their son Dennis Mathiesen. Ethel was a homemaker for her family. She kept a neat, tidy household and washed her curtains weekly. She enjoyed gardening and canning. Ethel was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Fred and Alva Baker; sisters Dora Nance and Opal Cooper. She is survived by her daughters Jeanette Walters and her husband Ronald of Jefferson City, Missouri and Patricia Kelley and her husband Mike of Humansville; son Dennis Mathiesen and his wife Susie of Weaubleau; 9 grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren; great-great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews. Funeral services for Ethel Mathiesen will be held Saturday, February 23rd at Murray Funeral Home, Humansville officiated by Pastor Jon Caudle with burial to follow at the Robinson Cemetery, Weaubleau. A visitation will be held Saturday from 10:30-11:00 AM at the funeral home.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Ethel B Mathiesen

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ Ethel B Mathiesen

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM