“ Marilyn, Norman, and all of Frances' family. She was a special person in my life. From the time we first moved to Bolivar until I left, Frances was always a light in my life. I know she will be missed by all who knew and the many, many students she touched when she worked at BHS. I will be praying for you all in your loss. She will be missed by all of us.

“ Our heartfelt sympathy to Marilyn, Kristi and Derek. Francis had a very special place in our hearts. The last of the Hendrickson/Krtek foursome to leave this earth--she lovingly did her part to honor the ones who went before and mother those of us left behind. I know there is some bean snappin' or ice cream makin' amid lots of laughter going on in heaven right now!
