“ My wife Margie and I got to know Gary very well several years ago during our work at the Sigma and Talbot Houses. Gary had a deep faith in the Lord and was always thinking of others rather than himself. He will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and many friends.

“ I was the Director of The Talbot House at Kay Creason Center for the Kitchen Inc., when Gary came to us. Gary was our cook off-and-on during 2003. Gary had a big heart, and as a recovering person myself, I know the tremendous challenges Gary faced on a daily basis. My wife Margie and I extend our deepest sympathies to Gary's other friends (of which he had many) and especially his family. Gary is at peace now.

“ To the family of Gary. My husband, Hayward Ray, and Gary were good, close friends for many years. Even though we lost touch with Gary over the past couple of years, he was never far from our thoughts or prayers. God called Hayward home to Heaven on Feb. 1st this year. I feel in my heart that they are together. My prayers are with you all. God Bless, Loretto Ray and sons, Byron, Jesse and Arron.
