“ Dear Casey, I am so sad for you to lose your grandma that you loved so much. She was so very proud of you and your accomplishments as I know she was of her other grandchildren. However, I rejoice in knowing she is in the arms of Jesus now. I will keep you and your family in my prayers as you adjust to life without Grandma Grace. May God give you comfort and peace that only He can give. Bonnie (Lady Bear Praying Grandma)

“ Dear Girls/families, I am sorry for your loss. Nevertheless, I rejoice with you in knowing that Grace is smiling and enjoying being with her Saviour Yeshua! Grace was such a patient teacher and encourager for so many of us growing up at Malden. I loved her dearly! I am glad for having seen her in recent years. Gloria, Terry, Vickie, and Susie, you were such beautiful, smiling little girls who grew up to be beautiful women and mothers--taught by one of God's best!! Love to all! Marilyn McBurney

“ Vicki & Family, I was so sorry to hear of the death of your Mom, she was such an inspiration to me and she held so much wisdom in that little body. I know you will miss her but think how happy she was when she looked upon the face of our Lord. I can almost hear her shouts of joy. I know Gods love will get you through the coming days, and we'll be praying for his comfort. Love in Christ Donna & Al

“ My deepest sympathies go out to Grace's family. I strongly remember her from the First Baptist Church in Malden, she always had her big Bible and beautiful smile and was very loving and kind to me as a child. The older I get the more I remember that the end of the day, it's all about how we love those around us. Grace embodied the love of Christ to all those she came in contact with. I didn't know much about her, but I will always remember her love. She loved my mother, who has already gone on to be with God, so hopefully they will meet again. Again, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Grace was such a true example of a living Christ. Love, Mary Lanier

“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of your mother. A true warrior for Christ and a dedicated and passionate Christian. I still have fond memories of being in church being taught by your mother. God blessed her and now she is in heaven telling Christ about her family I am sure. God be with you all.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the death of your mother. I have some wonderful memories to hold onto. I can only imagine the expression on her face as she stands in the presence of our Lord. She was such a strong Christian and I know that she is excited to see her family and friends that were there to greet her. She will be greatly missed. May God give each family the strength to get through the days ahead. Love you in Christ, Diana Clark

“ Dear All, It has been a long time since we've seen Grace (back in Malden, MO), but we were so sorry to hear about her passing. We both know how difficult it is to lose your mom, no matter how long you've had her with you. We are praying for each of you that there will be grace to sustain you, strength to hold you, and the unbelievable peace that only God can give you.
