“ For one so young to leave is unimaginable. For one so young to loose is even more unimaginable. Who knows what could have been. I just wish there was more time for them to spend. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ My deepest sympathies. I did not know your son but I know his daughter and I know his passing is leaving a big hole in everyone's life. May you all find peace one day.

“ He was my little brother and meant alot to me, to hear of his passing so soon is a total shock as we had talked the day he passed,4/17/08, several times and each time ended with "I love you sis/Miah" for this I will forever be thankfull and never will I forget my little brother. He fought in the war against Iraq and stood up for our country, came back home to us and passed in his sleep with all the many dogs he had rescued whenever someone would let him know of a dog needing care and a home. His pack died with him defending his sleep and protecting him. I know he is in heaven right now with each and every one of them and will be keeping his eyes on his loved ones left here behind till its our time to join him. I love you very much Miah!
Lovingly your sister, Aleta
