OBITUARY

HAZEL MARIE BROWN

Hazel Marie Brown, age 88 of Bolivar, died Thursday, July 21, 2006 at Citizens Memorial Hospital in Bolivar following a short illness.

She was born May 27, 1918, in Searcy, Arkansas, to James Edmond and Daisy Lee Key Brown. She grew up in the Searcy area and graduated from Searcy High School. She married William Paul Brown, Jr. on October 31, 1938, and to this union one son was born.

Following their marriage, Hazel and William lived in many towns in Arkansas, including Searcy, Harrison, McGeehee, Pine Bluff, and El Dorado while William worked for the Arkansas Power and Light Company. Hazel worked in the home as a housewife and mother. She enjoyed serving as Cub Scout Den Mother, Sunbeams leader, Sunday School teacher, and member of church Circle Clubs and community Garden Clubs. Hazel also loved to knit and sew and was especially fond of baking pies and cakes. Following William's retirement, Hazel and William lived in Chicago, IL, for several years before moving to Bolivar in 1980. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Bolivar.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and three brothers,

Herman, Leland, and J. E. Brown.

Hazel is survived by one son, Bill Brown and his wife Kathy of Bolivar; and two grandsons, Jeremy Brown and his wife, Mallouce, of Temecula, CA; and Jason Brown of Bolivar, MO. She is also survived by nephews, Ed and Craig Brown, and niece Marshelle Thobaben, all living in California.

Funeral services were held on Monday, July 24, 2006 at 10:00 AM in the First Baptist Church in Bolivar with Rev. Bill Hooper officiating. Musical selections were by George and Susan Baker. Burial was in the Greenwood Cemetery under the direction of the Butler Funeral Home of Bolivar. Casketbearers were: Jeffery Waters, Wesley Gott, Charlie Brown, Dennis Owens, Mike Stephens, and David Hacker.
