“ There are so many memories of her she was an amazing woman. She was strong, she was kind, and giving she was sincere, and sweet, she was beautiful, and unique. For someone to be so strong and lose so much is unbelievable. I know that out of everyone that is gone losing her was inconceivable. Now that I'm older and I look at my two boys. They are teenagers now they drive cars they're not little boys with toys. Everything you told me one day what happened has come true. I am so very sorry for the horrible daughter I was 2 you. I understand now the pain and worried that goes along with the teenager pulling away when you try so hard to hold on. Anything that hurts the most is that I wish that you were here to give me advice to be my strength but it doesn't help to wish because you are already gone. I always have your love in my heart. For God may need you in heaven but I will carry your memory so that every day of my life will still be a part. Love you Mama.

“ Our prayers are being said for you during this time. She always seemed to care about her children and showed interest in how they did in school. I always enjoyed seeing her and Bill together and a pleasant hello said to me. God bless the family as God has received another angel.
