“ My cousin Darlene was the most gracious, kind and devoted person I knew. She was a wonderful example of a true Christian. Her and Robert were always loyal to visit her Uncle Guy Barker which made me thankful. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time of loss knowing that she in a better place awaiting to see us again. May each of you be comforted knowing that she left many positive memories for me. May you all be blessed by our Heavenly Father. Bill and Diane Barker

“ I vividly remember the first time that Darlene came to my attention. It was a service that was open for testimonies of what God was doing in their lives. On the other side of the sanctuary an eloquent , composed and sincere lady stood. For the next few minutes she spoke of her dependance and need for the Lord in her life. I've heard hundreds of such testimonies in my life but for some reason her words really resonated with me. There was not doubt about what were the guiding principles for her life. It is a time of sorrow and yet I'm sure the Seiner family finds peace in knowing Darlene ran her race well and won her prize.
