“ *Mary Ann,
Sorry about the loss of your mother. Remember when we attended Church together at Pleasant Hill?
That has been a long time ago.
Again, sorry to hear about your loss.*

“ It is hard to express your feelings when you have had such a great loss as this. The world has lost a wonderfull, beautiful person.....but God has gained so much more. I would like to express my deapest gratitude for everyone who assisted with the care of my grandmother, you are truely appreciated. Granny I love you and miss you, my greatest relief is that I will get to see your beautiful face once agin. There will be many more laughs when I see you again

“Granny, I miss you soooo much and you never hesitated to show me your unconditional love, this was very evident when you would pull out a kleenex, lick it and wipe the crust from my eyes that I had neglected to do myself. When the time comes, I cannot wait to climb up on your lap again. It was very painful when you no longer recognized my voice, but I have no doubt you recognize it now. To everyone who helped care for you, we THANK YOU! R.I.P Granny, I hope you caught the kiss I blew to you, and my love is with you always! Love, Rachell Maxine
