“ Hank and I became very close while he lived In Collins. My father had passed a few years earlier and he stepped up and became a mentor to me and my walk of faith. I will always cherish the memories I have of him. I miss him. Love you buddy.

“ The thing that I will always remember about Uncle Hank is that he always asked about what vehicle I was driving every time we met. I'd tell him, and he'd get that grin of his whether it was a Ford or a Chevy. He was a very dedicated Chevy man. P.S. Now I can buy a Ford guilt-free.
