

James Dale Coleman

August 28, 1941 - March 13, 2012

James Dale Coleman, 70, of Fair Play, passed away Tuesday, March 13, 2012. He was born in Fair Play the son of James Samuel and Eunice Ellen Miller Coleman. He was a machinist for the Kansas City Southern Railroad in Kansas City retiring in 1996. He had just moved back to Fair Play prior to his death. He was of the Baptist faith. He was an active member of the Eagles in Excelsior Springs, Missouri, and also the Elks of Excelsior Springs. James was a fisherman and enjoyed his time outdoors. He was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by Barbara, his wife of 31 years; 5 sons, James Bryan Coleman of Kansas City, Missouri; Rob Gray and wife Tabitha, of Kansas City, Missouri; Samuel Coleman of Kansas City, Missouri; Matt Coleman and wife Linda of Eaton, Colorado; Mark Coleman of LaCyne, Kansas; daughter Jennifer Coleman of Kansas City, Missouri; brother Bill Miller and wife Sandy of Belton, Missouri; sister Peggy Chastain, Lathrop, Missouri; cousins Rosalie Combs and Donald Higginbotham of Fair Play; and 11 grandchildren. Memorial services will be held 2 PM Friday, March 16th, at the Harvest Assembly of God Church in Fair Play officiated by Pastor Lyle Shaulis and under the direction of Murray Funeral Home, Bolivar. Visitation will be held 1 hour prior to the service.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ James Dale Coleman

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ James Dale Coleman

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM

“ So sorry to hear of your loss.

Sharleen Coleman Hobson - March 15, 2012 at 12:00 AM