

James L. Parkman

February 5, 1955 - November 23, 2007

James Leland Parkman, 52, Flemington, died Friday, November 23, 2007 at his home. The son of George Leland Parkman II and Mavis A. (Pepianti) Parkman, he was born February 5, 1955 at Bakersfield, CA. A Flemington resident the past 7 years, he was a retired forklift mechanic. He is survived by a brother, George L. Parkman III, Bakersfield, CA. Cremation was under the direction of Murray Funeral Home, Humansville.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ James L. Parkman

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ James L. Parkman

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM

“ We will dearly miss you James, until hopefully, we meet up again. You have always been extended family and we love you, but we think you know that. We will always remember your famous quote "No one makes it out alive." Bye for now Bubba...better times to come.

Dave & Candi Noble - November 28, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Jim was a great guy and a great friend. I had known him for 40+ years. We went to grade school, junior high and high school together. We became roommates when we rented a house in Redwood City, CA. We were both turning 21 when it snowed right there in Redwood City. Jim loved to drive. One time we drove from Redwood City to Yosemite to South Lake Tahoe to North Lake Tahoe back to Redwood City. We really only stopped once and that was in Yosemite to see Ross and Kathy McAlister. A very long drive indeed. Anyway Jim was a kind soul and had a soft heart. A really, really nice guy. I will miss him very, very much. George, if you see this and feel like visiting the old F.G. stop on by. I still live in the folks home.

Craig Keller - November 27, 2007 at 12:00 AM