“ *Im sincerely sorry for you loss.
I cannot even begin to imagine how your hearts are broken but he would want you to celebrate the life he did live he loved you all so very much his family meant everything to him regardless of his flaws.
Your son Jimmy was such a bright handsome & charming guy. I know he truly could lift my spirits anytime with that gorgeous smile or silly laugh. I believe he no longer has to deal with any type of pain or suffering. He is in a much better place. God knew his heart. He was definately one in a million.
I & Jimmy became really good friends throughout the last year, he will truly be missed by so many. He'll never be forgotten.
I have so many good memories with him.
I always told him that he brightened up my life.
If there is anything I can do to help please let me know.
Sincerely Always,
Ashley B. Ritter*

We pray for you and all the family that God will help you through the coming days and grant you the peace of little Jimmy's spirit to surround you, knowing that God embraces the return of all His children. May comfort of God's grace and blessings ease your grief in the days to come. Our hearts go out to you, and also to Tyler for the loss of his brother.*
