

Janet Lynn Henry

August 31, 1946 - October 3, 2022

Janet Lynn (Flack) Henry, died peacefully in her Flemington, Missouri home on October 3, 2022. She was 76 years old. The family is deeply saddened by her sudden death.

Janet was born in Columbia, MO on August 31, 1946 and is the daughter of Charity Jane Flack & John Keith Flack. Janet graduated from Hallsville High School in 1964 and married her High School sweetheart in 1965. Janet attended the University of Missouri where she was a music major. She lived in the Hallsville/Columbia area for most of her life.

Janet was raised on a dairy farm where she learned to love all of God's creatures. She was blessed with many talents. She had a beautiful voice, keen intelligence and a near photographic memory. She was also a gifted writer, an avid reader and an accomplished pianist. As a small child, she amazed the entire congregation at her church when at the age of 8 she played a complex rendition of "Star of the Sea". Janet excelled in school, graduating as Salutatorian of her High School class.

In addition to singing in the church choir, Janet played the organ at the VA Hospital Chapel in Columbia, MO for many years. She also worked with the Cambodian Ministry at her church. She was a blessing to everyone, spreading love and light wherever she went and everyone who knew her understood how special she was. Perhaps most import to Janet was her passion for animals. She loved and rescued, cared for, nurtured and supported many a cat and dog during the course of her lifetime.

Janet is survived by her husband, Ed, her children Lynn (Mel) Ventura of Middleburg, FL, Keith Henry of Columbia, MO and Jennifer (Mark) Coleman of Springfield, MO; Grandchildren: Kayla Turley, Megan Henry and Leah Henry; Great Grandchildren: Abigail, Adalynn & Miley; Sister Margaret Jean McBride, Niece Stephanie Lee Barela and an abundance of friends. She will be missed more than words can say.

Janet and Ed are members of Rondo Baptist Church, Flemington, MO
Contributions in memory of Janet can be made to the church or to her Great Granddaughter Adalynn's GoFundMe page: <https://gofund.me/73fd20c6> (Adalynn is battling Tay-Sachs Disease) or to the local animal rescue/shelter of your choice.

Janet requested a cremation and her ashes will be scattered on a date yet to be determined in one of her favorite spots on earth – her childhood home/family farm.

Tribute Wall

“ Janet Lynn Henry

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ Janet Lynn Henry

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM

“ Unfortunately I never met Janet but we did correspond from time to time. My sympathy goes to all of the family. Cousin Betty

Betty Flack Alzamora - October 07, 2022 at 11:42 AM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Janet Lynn Henry.

October 06, 2022 at 02:48 PM