“ One of the sweetest lady's I have ever known...the smile was always directed directly at whomever she was standing or sitting in front of...she always asked about my children and grandchildren...early on remembering their names...even though we didn't want to be in that place, I will forever miss her walking in the halls of the care facility..my deepest prayers and thoughts of loving remembrances of 'Miss Janice'...Sincerely, Anna Laura Hembree Hopkins

“ Janice was a dear friend. We used to eat lunch together when I worked. Didn't get to see her as often after I retired but was always proud to call her my friend. So sorry for your loss.
