

Janie Loraine Jump

November 10, 1952 - June 26, 2013

Janie Loraine Jump, 60, of Bolivar passed away Wednesday, June 26th at her residence in Bolivar. She was one of 8 children born to Aaron and Mary Carey in Tahlequah, Oklahoma. During her career as a respiratory therapist she worked for several different facilities but her longest tenure was in Clinton, Missouri. She returned to the Bolivar area to be near her son and daughter-in-law as her health required. Janie enjoyed her family, especially her grandchildren, and her beloved little dog. She had a green thumb and loved gardening and canning, cooking, and baking. She was a reader and worked with crafts, quilting and crocheting. She loved the Lord and reading His Word. She was of the Pentecostal faith. She was preceded in death by her parents, sister Helen Carey, and brother Jimmy Mitchell. She is survived by her son Don Jump and his wife Donna of Flemington; daughters Linda Burbridge and her husband Kirkland and Laura Talbert and her husband Donnie all of Cassville, Missouri; grandchildren Jessica, Riley, and Truman Burbridge, Kendrick and Jamison Jump and Macie Talbert; sisters Marie McCowan and her husband Ben, Linda Easter of Kansas City, Wynona Burwell of Clinton, Carol Burwell of Windsor, Sara Buckley of Osceola; numerous nieces and nephews. Memorial services will be held 4 PM Friday, July 19th at the Good Samaritan Boys Ranch Chapel in Brighton officiated by Pastor Jerry Baughman.
