

Jean Ellen Barker

March 21, 1951 - November 12, 2019

Jean Ellen Barker, 68, of Humansville, Missouri, passed away Tuesday, November 12, 2019 at Research Medical Facility in Kansas City, Missouri. Jean was born on March 21, 1951 to Albert and Emily Anderson in Walt Hill, Nebraska along with two brothers, Terry and Ivan Anderson.

Jean went to school in Humansville, Mo and liked the area so much that after she married the love of her life, Steve Barker, they moved back to the area onto a farm in 1997. Steve and Jean both liked to fish when they could and loved having animals on the farm. Jean worked in a sewing factory and café, where her and Steve loved to go and have coffee and visit with friends.

Jean has several nieces and nephews that live all around, and when Jean and Steve became disabled, their nephew Steven and his wife Krista Hoss along with their kids came to live on the farm and help take care of things.

Jean is preceded in death by her parents and both brothers.

Jean is survived by her husband; Steven of the home, her nephew Steve and his wife Krista, of Humansville, Mo, niece Tammy Langley of Bolivar, Mo, and many other nieces, nephews and good friends.

Services for Jean will be later.
